Answers to Frequently Asked Questions about the Open-Air Theatre Festival:

- We will follow government advice with regard to social distancing.
- Bring low-back seating, blankets, and picnics if desired. No seating is provided.
- An area for people on blankets is reserved at the front.
- Ticket holders enjoy free access to the gardens two hours before 7pm performances and one hour before earlier performances. (Or earlier for pre-show drama workshops)
- Most performances last approx 2 hours with a 20 minute interval
- Minimum ages are advisory only. Please use your discretion.
- High quality refreshments and drinks are usually available. Check with the venue.
- The following may be useful: A torch, insect repellent, an umbrella (or sunshade!)
- Performances continue regardless of the weather. Be prepared.
- There are no indoor alternatives in case of bad weather.
- In the event of electrical storm, tickets will be exchanged for another date.
- Most venues have level access, adjacent parking and toilet facilities suitable for disabled people. For specific access information please call the box office on 01805 624624 or the individual venue via their website.
